CONFIDENTIALITY STIPULATION AND PROTECTIVE ORDER BETWEEN THE EXAMINER AND THE BANK OF NEW YORK MELLON CORPORATION

This Stipulation (the “Stipulation” or “Protective Order”) is entered into by and between the undersigned counsel, acting for and on behalf of their respective clients:

- (a) Anton R. Valukas, Esq., in his capacity as Examiner (as defined below) appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases (as defined below) of Lehman Brothers Holdings, Inc. and its affiliated debtors and debtors in possession (the “Debtors”) in the Chapter 11 Cases, and
- (b) The Bank of New York Mellon Corporation (“The Bank of New York Mellon”).

WHEREAS, commencing on September 15, 2008 (“Commencement Date”), the Debtors commenced voluntary cases (“Chapter 11 Cases”) under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Bankruptcy Court”), and the Debtors are authorized to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code;

WHEREAS, on January 16, 2009, the Bankruptcy Court entered an Order Directing the Appointment of an Examiner Pursuant to Section 1104(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Examiner Order”), and the Examiner Order, inter alia, ordered to appoint an examiner (the “Examiner”), and (ii) the Examiner to conduct an investigation into certain specified matters and to perform the duties set forth in sections 1106(a)(3) and (4) of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, and as may be amended and/or supplemented by a Bankruptcy Court order, the “Examiner Investigation”);

- (i) the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the “U.S. Trustee”)

WHEREAS, on January 19, 2009, pursuant to the Examiner Order, the U.S. Trustee appointed Anton R. Valukas as Examiner and the Bankruptcy Court approved the appointment by Order dated January 20, 2009;

WHEREAS, the Examiner has requested that The Bank of New York Mellon produce certain documents and provide information relevant to the Examiner Investigation (all documents and information provided by The Bank of New York Mellon to the Examiner, the “Discovery Materials”);

WHEREAS, The Bank of New York Mellon has requested, and the Examiner has agreed, that certain Discovery Materials be subject to a protective order, pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7026, to protect the confidentiality of sensitive information; and

WHEREAS, the Examiner and The Bank of New York Mellon have entered into this Stipulation and agreed to be bound by its terms;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED, AGREED, AND UPON COURT APPROVAL HEREOF, IT IS ORDERED THAT:

1. The Bank of New York Mellon may designate as “Highly Confidential” that portion of any Discovery Materials that The Bank of New York Mellon in good faith believes meets any of the following criteria in subparagraphs (a) - (g) below, provided that “Highly Confidential” information shall not include: information that is at any time independently developed by the Examiner without use of or reliance upon any of The Bank of New York Mellon's Discovery Materials; information rightfully acquired by the Examiner from an independent source without restrictions as to use; information that was, prior to disclosure, rightfully in the possession or knowledge of the Examiner; information that is publicly available in substantially the same form in which it was provided by The Bank of New York Mellon; information that was, is or becomes public knowledge, not in violation of this Protective Order; or information that is voluntarily de-designated by The Bank of New York Mellon. Subject to these conditions and limitations, The Bank of New York Mellon may designate the following as "Highly Confidential":

(a) information that identifies specific securities, loans, instruments or other property now or previously held, maintained or possessed by The Bank of New York Mellon or any of its customers and which is not related to the Debtors, except that The Bank of New York Mellon may designate as "Highly Confidential" information that identifies specific securities, loans, instruments or other property of or formerly of the Debtors that is currently held, maintained or possessed by The Bank of New York Mellon;

(b) information that identifies and specifically relates to current or former customers of The Bank of New York Mellon other than the Debtors, including, without limitation, matters pertaining to such customers' accounts, credit exposure, appraisals, financial condition or valuations;

(c) information concerning The Bank of New York Mellon's employee and executive compensation;

(d) information that is proprietary and competitively sensitive and/or that reveals The Bank of New York Mellon's methodology in regard to risk-rating, valuation or other forms of financial or credit analysis;

(e) information that reveals personal financial or other personal data of a personal or intimate nature regarding any individual that will cause undue harm to the reputation of or embarrassment to such individual;

(f) information that The Bank of New York Mellon is required by law or regulation to protect from disclosure; or

(g) any other category of information hereinafter given "Highly Confidential" status by agreement between the Examiner and The Bank of New York Mellon.

2. The Bank of New York Mellon may designate as "Confidential" that portion of any Discovery Material that The Bank of New York Mellon in good faith believes meets any of the following criteria in subparagraph (a) below, provided that "Confidential" information shall not include: information that is at any time independently developed by the Examiner without use of or reliance upon any of The Bank of New York Mellon's Discovery Material; information rightfully acquired by the Examiner from an independent source without restrictions as to use; information that was, prior to disclosure, rightfully in the possession or knowledge of the Examiner; information that is publicly available in substantially the same form in which it was provided by The Bank of New York Mellon; information that was, is or becomes public knowledge, not in violation of this Protective Order; or information that is voluntarily de-designated by The Bank of New York Mellon. Subject to these conditions and limitations, The Bank of New York Mellon may designate the following as "Confidential":

(a) any category of information hereinafter given “Confidential” status by agreement between the Examiner and The Bank of New York Mellon.

3. The Bank of New York Mellon may designate Discovery Materials as Confidential or Highly Confidential by applying the applicable legend to the Discovery Materials. In the case of data stored in electronic form, the applicable legend, if any, shall be printed on the cover or container of the disk, tape, or other medium in which the electronic form data is stored.

4. Discovery Materials that have been designated Highly Confidential shall be maintained in confidence and shall not be shared by the Examiner with any person other than: (i) persons who authored or who were the original recipients of the document at issue; (ii) Jenner & Block, in its capacity as counsel to the Examiner, including Jenner & Block attorneys, legal assistants, paralegals, secretarial, and other staff; (iii) professional firms or persons as are retained by the Examiner to provide specialized advice in connection with the Examiner Investigation, including their staff, and including Duff & Phelps; (iv) outside vendors such as copy services or document management vendors used by the Examiner; (v) the Bankruptcy Court (in accordance with Paragraph 8); and (vi) other persons upon further order of the Court or consent of The Bank of New York Mellon. In the event the Examiner in good faith believes that providing Highly Confidential materials to a witness or other person providing information to the Examiner would assist the Examiner in carrying out his duties, the Examiner shall provide notice to The Bank of New York Mellon of the materials he seeks to use (except with respect to interviews of persons who authored or who were the original recipients of the document at issue, provided that no other parties are present at the interview), and the parties shall use their best efforts within five business days to allow the use of such material while protecting The Bank of New York Mellon's need for confidentiality, including, but not limited to, considering whether portions of such material can be redacted, re-evaluating whether such material must be protected as "Highly Confidential," or considering other provisions to allow the Examiner to carry out his duties while protecting the confidentiality of The Bank of New York Mellon information. In the event the Examiner and The Bank of New York Mellon cannot resolve an issue concerning the use of "Highly Confidential" information, the matter may be presented to the Bankruptcy Court for resolution on an expedited basis.

5. Discovery Materials that have been designated Confidential (but not Highly Confidential) may be shown to any of the individuals or entities identified in Paragraph 4, as well as to witnesses or other persons who are providing information to the Examiner in connection with the Examiner Investigation (without providing notice to The Bank of New York Mellon) provided that counsel for the Examiner has provided such person with a copy of this Protective Order and such person has executed a Non-Disclosure Declaration in the form annexed as an Exhibit hereto. If Confidential or Highly Confidential information is the subject of testimony during a deposition or other recorded interview, then it shall be indicated on the record by counsel for the Examiner (or, if counsel for The Bank of New York Mellon is present, by counsel for The Bank of New York Mellon) that a question, or a line of questioning concerning a particular subject matter, calls for Confidential or Highly Confidential information, in which case the transcript of the designated testimony shall be bound in a separate volume and marked as "Confidential Information Governed by Protective Order" by the reporter, and any transcripts of such testimony shall be treated as Confidential or Highly Confidential documents, as the case may be.

6. Counsel for the Examiner shall provide a copy of this Protective Order to a representative of any professional firm, vendors or individual other than Jenner & Block who is retained by the Examiner, and the firm or vendor representative or individual, as the case may be, must execute a Non-Disclosure Declaration in the form annexed as an Exhibit hereto prior to the firm or individual receiving any Highly Confidential or Confidential information.

7. If at any time The Bank of New York Mellon determines or realizes that certain testimony or some portion(s) of Discovery Materials that it previously produced should be designated as Confidential or Highly Confidential, The Bank of New York Mellon may apprise the Examiner in writing, and such designated testimony or portion(s) of Discovery Materials will thereafter be treated as Confidential or Highly Confidential under the terms of this Agreement, provided, however, that The Bank of New York Mellon shall, at its cost, provide the Examiner with substitute copies, bearing the appropriate legend, of any such Discovery Materials.

8. All Confidential and Highly Confidential information filed with the Bankruptcy Court, and all portions of pleadings, motions or other papers filed with the Bankruptcy Court that disclose such Confidential or Highly Confidential Discovery Materials, shall be filed under seal with the Clerk of the Court and kept under seal until further order of the Bankruptcy Court.

9. In the event the Examiner objects to any designation of testimony or Discovery Materials as Confidential or Highly Confidential, the Examiner shall so inform

The Bank of New York Mellon, stating the grounds of the objection, and the parties shall have seven business days to attempt to resolve the Examiner's objection, at the end of which the Examiner may seek a ruling from the Bankruptcy Court that such information should not be treated as Confidential or Highly Confidential, provided that no Confidential or Highly Confidential information shall be filed in the public record prior to such a determination by the Court, and provided further that the burden shall be on The Bank of New York Mellon to justify the claim that disputed material has been properly designated.

10. In the event the Examiner is required by law to provide Confidential or Highly Confidential material to any third party, the Examiner shall first provide prompt prior written notice to counsel for The Bank of New York Mellon and The Bank of New York Mellon shall be given a reasonable opportunity to seek protection from a court.

11. To the extent that documents produced pursuant to this Protective Order are later produced to a third party in response to lawful process, The Bank of New York Mellon's designation of documents as "Confidential" or "Highly Confidential" under this Protective Order shall not be binding on such third party.

12. This Protective Order shall survive the termination of the Examiner Investigation.

13. The Examiner will use all documents and information produced by the Bank of New York Mellon solely for the purpose of the Examiner Investigation.
